The Report & Recommendation by United States Magistrate Judge Brooke C. Wells issued on March 12, 2014<sup>1</sup> recommends that this court (1) grant Defendant and Counter-plaintiff AIG Federal Savings Bank's ("AIG") Motion for Summary Judgment<sup>2</sup> on all claims and (2) enter judgment in favor of AIG and against Plaintiff and Counter-defendant Robert James Mixdorf ("Mixdorf") in the amount of $51,735.01, plus post-judgment interest and taxable costs of court.

The parties were notified of their right to file objections to the Report & Recommendation within 14 days of service pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) and Fed.R.Civ.P. 72(b). On March 26, 2014, Mixdorf filed a Motion for Enlargement of Time<sup>3</sup> to object to the Report & Recommendation. Mixdorf's motion was granted, and Mixdorf was ordered to file any objections on or before April 11, 2014.<sup>4</sup> On April 11, 2014, Mixdorf filed a second motion for extension of time to file objections,<sup>5</sup> which was essentially identical to his first motion. second motion was denied on April 17, 2014.<sup>6</sup> Notwithstanding the first extension to object, Mixdorf has failed to file any objection to the Report & Recommendation. As of the date of this order, no objections to the Report & Recommendation have been filed by either of the parties.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) and Fed.R.Civ.P. 72(b)(3), after reviewing de novo all materials, including the record that was before the magistrate judge and the reasoning set forth in the Report & Recommendation, the analysis and conclusion of the magistrate judge is found to be correct and will be adopted. Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Report & Recommendation<sup>7</sup> is ADOPTED.

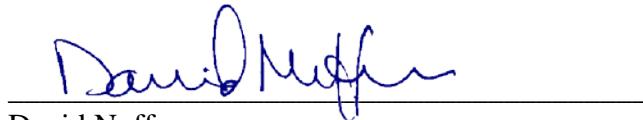

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that AIG's Motion for Summary Judgment<sup>8</sup> is GRANTED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that judgment is entered against Robert James Mixdorf in the amount of $51,735.01, plus post-judgment interest and taxable costs of court.

The Clerk shall close the case.

Signed April 21, 2014.
